

© AGREEING TEAM GOALS

1 Why do Pit Stop Teams in Formula 1 have to work as a tight team and agree goals?

© WR12 - www.F1-Live.com

This is one of the most stressful jobs a team could do. It has to be performed at extremely high speeds, there is risk and if you get anything wrong it could be a disaster.

Could this team afford to have someone on their team who wasn't playing their part in achieving the goal of winning?

2 Do you think your school has Team Goals?

What questions could you ask your teachers to work out what the team goals are ?

.....
.....
.....

3 Imagine you work in a football club merchandise shop. One of the reasons you love your job is because you have always supported the football team.

Imagine how you would feel on the morning after the team has won.

Imagine how you would feel on the morning after the team has lost.

Would you feel part of the team even if you weren't on the pitch?

4 Most jobs involve you working in a team and when you start a new job it's important to understand what the team goals are. Sometimes these are formal and very clear, sometimes they are obvious and expressed informally.

How do you think you can get to know what these are and what is expected?

.....
.....
.....
.....

5 Have you thought about the job you would love to do? How can you find out about team life and the team goals in this job?